During the COVID pandemic, Sacred Crossings offers hospice families the following:

- A Sacred Crossings Guide meets with the family on ZOOM to review after-death care options and answer questions.
- If there is no COVID and family tests negative, a Sacred Crossings Guide may go to the home to give a home funeral tutorial and leave supplies.
- If family is isolating, the Guide gives home funeral tutorial via ZOOM.
- Home funeral supplies are delivered to the home.
- When death has been called, the hospice nurse calls Sacred Crossings to guide and support the family with bathing/dressing/shrouding the body and finding a place in the home to 'lay in honor'.
- Sacred Crossings celebrant assists with after-death rituals and funeral service planning.
- Dry Ice is delivered to the home and preservation is overseen by Sacred Crossings.
- Cremation casket and art supplies are delivered to the home for the family to decorate.
- Sacred Crossings files death certificate, obtains permits and is available 24/7 for phone support during the vigil of 1 - 7 days.
- Body is casketed in the cremation box and Sacred Crossings transports to crematory.
- Ashes are returned to the family
